Chapter 1 by justin dewitt

Dustin, a calm, cool and collected sixteen year old boy that is skilled in the art of magic and a master of the battle fan together they make the most powerful mage ever.

Kate, a hotheaded thirteen year old, is skilled in the art of controlling the lost souls of the dead and able to shape shift and able to mimic anyone's voice.

Dustin and Kate were at a spa after school to relax after a long a hard day doing work. Kate was getting a seaweed wrap. Dustin was getting a pedicure. Kate went to sleep had a dream of her and her brother would have a magical adventure. When she awoke she found out her dream had come true. She found her brother and told him what happened.

They go to the front door of the spa, when they go through the door they find out that the door and the spa has vanished. They walk around through to find themselves in a miniature village with fairies living there. They ask the fairies if they could lead them home. They were told to go to the elder fairy. In the town's center lies an old red wood tree where the elder fairy her name was hazel and she was the queen of the fairies. She was the size of an twelve year old with long blue hair golden eyes that were piercing like an owls on the hunt she looked like a mix of native

Indian and Swedish with a pair of wings made of pure energy a strapless top and long skirt made from rainbow lily's in her hair.

Dustin and Kate asked Hazel if they could go home. She said yes but they would have to go to the underwater mountain of life and defeat the twins of the portal. She said the other people were too powerful for the two of them she offered to come with them they agreed. Hazel said that she would show them the way to the hidden grove to get more help. They followed hazel to the grove to find a tall man with very long blond hair sitting along the side of the pond then hazel hollered "FARO". Faro turns his head Dustin and Kate were surprised to see faro's eyes they were the color of amethysts and his tail was the same color. Faro said that they have to find some merkelp; merkelp will transform the person who eats it into a mer whenever they want to.

They dived into the lake to find the merkelp cave.

Dustin, faro, hazel, and Kate take three hours to find the merkelp cave, hazel Dustin and Kate look inside the cave and in the back of the cave they find the merkelp they eat the merkelp transform into one of the mer swim to the bottom of the pond in the grove find the underwater mountain of life, but when they get there the twins tried to stop both Kate and Dustin yet they only got Kate with a fatal stab .

When Dustin held Kate's lifeless body a blinding light appeared showering Dustin in light giving Dustin wings, a golden aura. Dustin freezes the twins then destroys them for good.
